

Flamingos Golf Club, Estepona

The borders of Los Flamingos Golf course and the horizon of the sea almost become one along Marbella's New Golden Mile and Los Flamingos actually comprise four golf courses. Los Flamingos 18 hole course at par 72, the Executive Course with 9 holes at par 64, the Gran Flamingo 18 hole course at par 72 and Flamingos Norte, an 18 hole par 72 course. The course has already been host to the Daily Telegraph European Senior Matchplay Championships several times.

The Flamingos course was designed in a striking Tuscan gardens style and visitors are transported back in time to regal scenes of classical statues, Cyprus trees, marble bridges and Roman columns. The Arroyo del Taraje river flows through the Los Flamingos course into a lake at the 10th hole and artificial lakes also play a role at the 15th, 16th and 17th. The designer has made imaginative use of elevated tees, generous greens, and large crushed marble bunkers. There are stunning views from around the course of the Mediterranean, Gibraltar and Africa.

Each hole is characterized by its own tree and you will spot pomegranate, jacaranda, olive, pine, cypress, orange and chestnut trees among others along and around the fairways.

Flamingos Golf

The greens are generously sized whilst its fairways are somewhat narrower on the front nine, where more precision playing is required than on the back nine. The bunkers are white marmolina sand. The fairways are sown with Bermuda, except on certain holes where grass has been used, whilst the greens and tees have been sown with Pencross.

Flamingo's Executive Golf

A beautiful, fast course that is, nevertheless, still technical and very entertaining. The 18 hole course, par 66, opened in summer 2008.

Gran Flamingo Golf Course

18 holes - par 73. Opened in October 2007 this converts our golf resort into one of the best in the world.

Flamingo Norte

18-holes - par 72 – our latest course is now open.

The "Hotel Villa Padiema" Clubhouse offers indoor and outdoor pools, a Spa, Business Centre and Beach Club as well as top class dining at a choice of three restaurants. Club, buggy and trolley rentals are available and there is a Pro Shop, a 50 tee Driving Range and Golf Academy.
